Subject Taken Into Custody After Jumping Into River

On April 7, 2022 at approximately 1 PM, Manchester Police attempted to take a wanted subject into custody in the area of Blaine St and Second St.

Upon seeing police, the man, 49 year old Jorge Guzman Alvarado ran from officers and ultimately jumped into the Merrimack River.

He was able to get inside a drainage pipe. As authorities worked to get him out, a loudspeaker was used to talk to him and a ladder was lowered into the pipe.

Alvarado eventually climbed out and was taken to a local hospital. Alvarado had an active warrant out of Bedford. More charges are now likely.

We want to thank the Manchester Highway Department and the Manchester Fire Department for assisting in this matter and helping us bring this to a safe and quick resolution.
